

Learn the Racing Rules of Sailing...

...before it's too late.

Brad Davis, a U S Sailing judge and certified race officer instructor, who has run more than 30 national sailing championships and too many to count club level races, will be leading a roundtable discussion of the Racing Rules of Sailing as they pertain to the start and mark roundings. You will learn how to use the rules to gain tactical advantage over your fellow competitors, as well as keep you out of trouble on the race course.
