Activities to be held:

ASA101 Reconfiguration

To better address the needs of novice sailors, the ASA101 course will be divided into two parts: beginners and intermediate. The breakout will more effectively meet beginning sailor's needs and allow the ASA101 instructors to spend more time doing on the water drills with intermediate level sailors.

Part 1 – “Beginners Keelboat Sailing” will be a 1-day class targeting new sailors. Non-AYC members will be charged $149 and AYC members will be allowed to attend for free. The 1-day sessions will be held on 3/7, 4/4, 5/2, 6/6, 9/5, 10/3, and 11/7.

These offerings should not present a conflict with other AYC events since novice sailors rarely are allowed to crew in various races.

Part 2 – “Intermediate Keelboat Sailing” will be the actual ASA101 certification course and be moved from the second weekend of the month to the third weekend in the same seven months what the “Beginners Keelboat Sailing” class will be taught. The new dates will be: 3/21, 4/18, 5/16, 6/20, 9/19, 10/17, and 11/21. Students will meet their instructors at the Crew Bench for water drills. At 3:00 p.m., everyone will move to the Sail Training Cabin for the ASA101 written exam.

The Sunday sessions will start ending at 12:30 to allow the Asa101 students a chance to race in AYC Sunday afternoon series.

There should be no conflict with other AYC events since most ASA101 students are non-members who are not currently racing.

Beginners Projections:

Average of 9 students per class

56 non-members at $149 each for a total of $8,344 revenue to AYC (7 AYC members to attend free)

Intermediate Projections:

Average of 6 students per course 5 non-members and 1 member seven times in 2020

35 x $495 for non-members x 7 courses = $17,325 of AYC revenue

7 x $395 for AYC-members = $2,765 of AYC revenue
